

From the Earth

TOO FAR TO REST

From the misty shores of Vancouver Island emerges "From The Earth," an indie-folk acoustic duo whose music embodies the energy and rugged beauty of the West Coast. Comprised of singer-songwriters Michelle Edwardson & Mike Bauche, this dynamic duo weaves intricate harmonies, infectious personalities, and expressive lyrics that resonate with the natural world around them.

Drawing inspiration from the untamed landscapes of Vancouver Island, their music reflects the ebb and flow of the Pacific Ocean, the whispering forests, and the majestic mountains that stand sentinel over the coastline. Rooted in upbeat and emotional folk, their sound carries echoes of timeless melodies, infused with a contemporary twist that speaks to modern audiences.

"Too Far To Rest" (2024) is the debut Album of the Vancouver Island - Nanaimo, British Columbia - Alternative Folk Duo - From The Earth.

A follow-up to their debut EP "My Whole Life" (2023), "Too Far To Rest" is a testament to the band's dedication to telling meaningful stories through their music. Each track on this record invites listeners to explore the profound connections between people, places, and the environment. From uplifting anthems to introspective ballads, "Too Far To Rest" captures the essence of connection, love and the universal themes that bind us all together.

From The Earth is not just a band; they are storytellers, dreamers, and ambassadors of the beauty of Vancouver Island. Through their music, they invite you to immerse yourself in the emotions, love, and positivity that define their island home and honor the land they live upon. Join them on their journey as they continue to create and share the magic of Vancouver Island with the world.

Too Far To Rest was written and recorded on the unseeded territory of the Snuneymuxw, Snaw-naw-as, Stzuminius people, and the traditional keepers of their land.
